

Bio: Jarvis Stewart

My name is Jarvis Stewart, I'm 42 years old. Been living in Hanley for about 13 years. Fan of baseball and classic action movies. Been known to make the occasional pizza. Likes to play cards.

1. What has spurred me to run for council?

I was motivated by the idea of giving something back to a community that has been very good to me. Plus, some old wise guys threatened to rough me up.

2. What do you love about your town?

The people are great, everybody waves. I love everything about it. Best place I've ever lived.

3. What would you push to change if elected?

Not looking to push anything to change. I'm sure there are ways we could be more efficient. Would like to hear other peoples concerns as well.

4. Why do you feel you would make a good Councillor?

I'm easy to get along with. I can offer a different perspective and I have some new ideas.

My contact:

Email: bigredmachine1978@gmail.com